LOCATION

The Union League of Philadelphia is a shining jewel of history in a city defined by such treasure. Founded in 1862 as a patriotic society to support the Union and the policies of President Abraham Lincoln, The Union League of Philadelphia laid the philosophical foundation of other Union Leagues across a nation torn by civil war. The League has hosted US presidents, heads of state, industrialists, entertainers and dignitaries from around the globe and has proudly supported the American military in each conflict since the Civil War. The Union League continues to be driven by its founding motto, Amor Patriae Ducit or Love of Country Leads.

OVERNIGHT RESERVATIONS

Call for reservations at 215-587-5570 and reference the PACDL Meeting Group. Reservation deadline is Oct. 28, 2015. Room rate is $239 per night.

DRESS CODE POLICY

The Union Leagues Dress Code Policy requires Business Casual Attire for ladies and gentlemen. Gentlemen are required to wear a collared shirt and slacks; turtleneck and mock-turtleneck shirts may be worn when accompanied by a suit jacket or sport coat. At no time are jeans, sneakers, athletic clothing, or shorts permitted on the first or second floor of The League House. The Union League reserves the right to refuse admittance to anyone not adhering to the dress code.

CELL PHONES

Cell phones may only be used in private meeting rooms or the Business Center. All cell phones must be silenced throughout the League House except in private rooms.

CANCELLATION POLICY

There will be no refunds after November 6, 2015 (a colleague may take your place or your material will be sent to you). Cancellations prior to that date will be subject to a $50 cancellation fee.
