Speakers

This webinar will address the additional sources of funds for which many businesses impacted by the novel coronavirus pandemic may qualify. The federal Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act offers opportunities for loans and other financial assistance, including the Paycheck Protection Program, and for tax savings and even tax refunds, including the Employee Retention Tax Credit and Payroll Tax Deferral. Cozen O'Connor attorneys Steven J. Dickinson, James Forsyth, and Jeff Vogel will discuss the available alternatives and steps companies can take to capitalize on them.
