

Nathan Dooley Joins Cozen O'Connor in Los Angeles

Monday, September 28, 2009

Nathan Dooley has joined Cozen O'Connor's Los Angeles office as an associate in the commercial litigation department. Prior to joining the firm, he was an associate with Quinn, Emanuel, Urquhart, Oliver & Hedges, LLP.

Dooley has experience handling matters involving idea theft, copyright, patent licensing disputes, alleged securities violations, banking violations and entertainment law. He also has worked on insurance coverage matters, cases implicating federal labor laws and matters involving violations of federal constitutional rights.

Dooley is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan (B.A., magna cum laude, 1993), Queen's University (M.A., 1995) and the University of California, Berkeley School of Law (J.D., 2002), where he graduated in the top 20 percent of his class and was a member of the International Law Journal and the Asian Law Journal. A former clerk for the Hon. Arthur L. Alarcón of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, the Hon. S. James Otero of the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California, and the Hon. Carolyn B. Kuhl of the Los Angeles Superior Court, Dooley is also fluent in Korean.
