

Going the Extra Mile

Friday, October 11, 2019

Chris Hennessy talks to the Chicago Lawyer magazine about the Chicago Marathon and his role as board president of the Chicago Area Runners Association (CARA). In the interview, Chris shares how he became involved with the CARA organization and what benefits he and others gain from participating in and volunteering to support for these nationally recognized events.

To read the full article, click here.

Related Practice Areas

- Commercial Litigation