Menachem Kastner will present “Real Estate Litigation: A Toolkit for Transactional Lawyers” at the 25th Annual Commercial Real Estate Institute. This course will cover how attorneys can better protect clients when litigation is likely. Menachem will discuss how to:

- Defend or refute threats of potential force majeure claims by understanding how courts are currently deciding these issues
- Know what documents will be subject to disclosure in litigation
- Properly store and maintain deal files in anticipation of litigation
- Identify common triggers of real estate litigation
- Steer clients from activity that could increase loss or liability during foreclosure
