2020 will certainly be remembered for the coronavirus pandemic and the ever-changing legal landscape it created for employers in California. As 2020 slowly comes to a close and we begin to look ahead to 2021, California employers will not only face legal challenges posed by COVID-19, they must also prepare to meet the obligations posed by employment laws that will take effect at the start of the year. In our latest webinar, we continue our analysis of the changing legal landscaping for California employers. Join us for this one-hour webinar as we review these changes and discuss the best practices to address them.
