Location

Hilton Harrisburg
One North Second Street, Second & Market Streets
Harrisburg PA, 17101

Date & Time

Start Date: 03/12/2024

Christopher Raphaely will present at the 2024 Pennsylvania Bar Institute's Health Law Institute.

Chris will present "Health Law in Review," summarizing important case law and regulatory developments affecting physicians and institutions. Topics will include Stark and Anti-Kickback decisions enforced through the False Claims Act; important limitations established by U.S. Court of Appeals decisions relating to remuneration and causation under the AKS; incident to rule cases and regulatory changes; physician restrictive covenant case law; No Surprises Act decisions; narcotics enforcement cases; improper access to medical records by social media companies; the U.S. Supreme Court's decision affecting the ambiguity of billing rules; Evaluation/Management and -25 Modifier enforcement cases; updated medical marijuana guidelines; and other notable developments.

Chris will also present "The No Surprises Act Two Years In: How the Act and Ensuing Litigation are Affecting Patients, Plans, and Providers." The landmark No Surprises Act established broad federal protections against surprise medical bills and expenses for patients. Chris will provide a general overview of the law and review additional government guidance and litigation updates since its implementation.
