

Ken Fisher Honored with Lifetime Achievement Award by New York Law Journal

Wednesday, July 1, 2020

New York, July 1, 2020 — Ken Fisher, a member of Cozen O'Connor's Business Law Department, has been selected by the New York Law Journal to receive its prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award. The honor recognizes recipients for their impact on the legal community and the practice of law during their entire career. Fisher was recognized for his ability to help clients navigate the politics, policies, laws, and economies of New York City and New York state in order to achieve critical business goals.

During a legal career that has spanned more than four decades, Fisher has served as a New York City Council Member and as founding chair of the New York City Chapter of the New York League of Conservation Voters. He was also founding chair of the Governors Island Alliance. He currently serves on the board of the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce and is chair of the Brooklyn Bar Association Committee on Government & the Public Sector. Fisher concentrates his practice on the public realm of the New York metropolitan area with a focus on real estate development, regulatory law, litigation, and investigations.

About Cozen O'Connor

Established in 1970, Cozen O'Connor has more than 925 attorneys who help clients manage risk and make better business decisions. The firm counsels clients on their most sophisticated legal matters in all areas of the law, including litigation, corporate, and regulatory law. Representing a broad array of leading global corporations and middle market companies, Cozen O'Connor services its clients' needs through 33 offices across two continents.

Related Practice Areas

- Real Estate
- Zoning, Land Use & Development