Jennifer Brandt and Bernard Zbrzezny have been named 2019 “Five-Star Attorneys” by Suburban Life Magazine. Suburban Life ran a months-long reader poll asking for feedback on the area’s top attorneys. Individuals chosen also needed to meet a competitive criteria that consisted of being actively involved in organizations such as the Philadelphia Bar Association, completing a minimum of 12 hours of continuing legal education per year, while also improving the community through philanthropic commitments and pro bono casework. Those attorneys recognized also receive favorable peer and client reviews through reputable services such as Martindale–Hubble.
