Greg focuses his practice on construction litigation matters. Before joining the firm, Greg was an associate attorney with a regional California law firm, where he practiced in the areas of construction litigation, bankruptcy litigation, commercial litigation, real estate transactions and disputes, business law, corporate governance, and contracts drafting, analysis, and negotiation. He began his legal career as a Judicial Extern to the Honorable Ryan J. Wright of the Superior Court of California, County of Ventura.

Greg earned his J.D. from Pepperdine University Caruso School of Law, where he received certificates from the Palmer Center for Entrepreneurship and the Law and the Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution. Before attending law school, Greg worked in client relations for a startup pharmaceutical software company. He received his B.B.A. from California Polytechnic State University. In his free time, he is a competitive chess player and enjoys golf.
