Webinar

Date & Time

Start Date: 12/10/2021

Start Time: 12:00 pm

End Time: 1:00 pm EST

OSHA's Emergency Temporary Standard (ETS) has now been issued and the path forward is clouded in uncertainty due to the pending legal challenges and conflicting guidance from state governors. Join our fireside chat with Jim Sullivan and guests Tim Glowa and Jennifer Morelli from Grant Thornton to hear the latest insights from a business and legal perspective on what companies can be doing now to prepare.

This webcast will provide:

- Update on the legal challenges to ETS, including the status of the stay issued by the Fifth Circuit
- State vs. federal laws, and which to follow
- Overview of ETS requirements and employer coverage
- Timeline for ETS implementation
- Principles of communication and change management
- Considerations for implementation and risks/costs of non-compliance

This program will not be offering CLE or SHRM credits.
