Melissa Brill and Laura Dowgin will present a Cozen O'Connor webinar titled, "Who Is an Additional Insured? What Insurers Need to Know — 2021 Update" on Wednesday, February 10, 2021. This webinar will provide an overview of additional insured endorsements, contract indemnification obligations and priority of coverage between various policies. For example, after an accident at a construction site, many entities may be sued. Owner, general contractor, and subcontractors may each have primary and excess policies. Which entities are covered by each policy? In what order should policies respond? What is the interplay between construction contracts and insurance policies? The presenters will address these issues using case law and factual scenarios.

The presenters will discuss:

- Various additional insured endorsements
- Additional insured coverage v. contractual indemnification
