

Jason Domark Joins the Board of Directors for the Everglades Law Center

Thursday, August 20, 2020

MIAMI, August 20, 2020 — Jason Domark, a member of the firm's Commercial Litigation Department, has joined the board of directors for the Everglades Law Center. Everglades Law Center is a nonprofit law firm dedicated to representing the public interest in environmental and land use matters. Working with more than 30 national, state, and local environmental and conservation groups, the firm utilizes litigation, advocacy, and policy development to protect and sustain the region's unique and irreplaceable ecosystems and communities.

Jason focuses his practice on complex commercial litigation, with an emphasis on international litigation, fiduciary litigation, and real estate related litigation. Jason has created and managed worldwide litigation strategies for multinational corporations and individuals in disputes involving U.S., European, South American, Caribbean, and Asian jurisdictions. Jason also serves on the Board of the Estate Planning Council of Greater Miami, and previously served on the board of directors of Habitat for Humanity of Greater Miami as the Habitat Young Professionals president, president emeritus, and networking chair. Jason also maintains an active pro bono practice, having worked on matters for Lawyers Without Borders, Lawyers Serving Warriors, the United Nations, Child Rights International Network, Americans for Immigrant Justice, Sprouting Scholars, and others.