

Amber Heard Faces Fight With Insurer Over Defamation Case

Sunday, July 10, 2022

John R. Ewell was quoted in the article “Amber Heard Faces Fight With Insurer Over Defamation Case” by Law360. The article highlights the uphill battle Amber Heard faces in overcoming California policy that bars coverage for intentional acts.

John said, “New York Marine has a stronger position in Travelers dispute because it’s highly questionable whether an insurer has standing to litigate whether another insurer owned independent counsel. The right alone belonged to Heard as the policyholder.”
