Menachem Kastner will present “Real Estate Litigation: A Toolkit for Transactional Lawyers” at the Practising Law Institute 26th Annual Commercial Real Estate Institute. This course will cover courts’ interpretation of key contract provisions and litigation triggers that all transactional lawyers should know. Menachem will discuss how to:

- Rethink seemingly boilerplate language and commonly used terms in light of recent case law
- Understand how events of default occur when addressing relevant provisions
- Clarify ambiguous terms and definitions
- Adapt document management and retention procedures to changing work conditions, e.g., data security, remote work
- Know the difference between “choice of law” and “forum selection” provisions
- Hear about recent federal and state cases impacting commercial real estate practice
