

6th Annual Food Labeling: Evolving Regulatory Compliance Conference

Location

Arlington, VA

Date & Time

Start Date: 01/30/2019

Richard Fama, a member in the firm's Commercial Litigation Department, will moderate the panel, Perspectives & Debate Surrounding The Use Of Natural Label Claims at the 6th Annual Food Labeling: Evolving Regulatory Compliance Conference, sponsored by Cozen O'Connor, in Arlington, Va., on January 30, 2019. Innovation within the food sciences has resulted in a wide variety of new products entering the market whose label claims attract consumers looking for products perceived as healthier or free-from various ingredients or additives, but which at times do not meet the traditional defining factors of food products. Rich will moderate a panel that will discuss the varied definitions surrounding the term 'natural,' consumer perspectives surrounding natural claims, and alternative label claims rather than using natural.
