

Steel Mogul Settles $48M Award Fight After 1st Day of Trial

Tuesday, September 19, 2023

Law360 discusses a confidential, high-profile settlement a group of Brazilian pig iron producers reached with Hans Mende, a global steel magnate and founder of American Metals & Coal International Inc. following the first day of a Manhattan jury trial in the more than decade-old dispute over the enforcement of the arbitral award against Mende. Sarah Krissoff, a member in White Collar Defense & Investigations group, was part of the trial team that successfully represented the seven Brazilian producers.

To learn more, click here.

Related Practice Areas

- White Collar Defense & Investigations