

Tom Wilkinson Named a Pennsylvania Trailblazer by The Legal Intelligencer

Thursday, November 21, 2019

PHILADELPHIA, November 21, 2019 — Tom Wilkinson, a leader of Cozen O'Connor's Legal Profession Practice Group, was named a Pennsylvania Trailblazer by The Legal Intelligencer in the field of legal ethics and professional responsibility.

Wilkinson is a past president of the Pennsylvania Bar Association (PBA), and the Pennsylvania Bar Institute. Wilkinson served for 11 years as chair or co-chair of the PBA's legal ethics and professional responsibility committee, responding to ethics inquiries from lawyers across the commonwealth. He is the Pennsylvania state delegate to the American Bar Association's House of Delegates and has been appointed by the ABA president to serve on the ABA Standing Committee on Professionalism. He also has served in leadership positions with the ABA Section of Litigation's Ethics and Professionalism Committee. Wilkinson is a past member of the Philadelphia Bar Association Board of Governors and co-chairs its Appellate Courts Committee. He is a master of the Villanova Law J. Willard O'Brien American Inn of Court and has been a lecturer in law on professional responsibility at Villanova University School of Law. He also chairs the Defense Research Institute Lawyers' Professionalism and Ethics Committee. He is a frequent lecturer and author on lawyer professional responsibility and civil litigation topics.
