Seth advises emerging and seasoned companies on issues related to corporate finance and governance. He regularly represents companies from a broad range of industries in public offerings, SEC reporting matters, as well as acquisitions and dispositions.

Seth's representation of clients extends to counseling clients on companies' employee compensation and corporate governance matters. He also has significant experience representing underwriters in public offerings.

Seth began his legal career in the corporate practice of a Silicon Valley law firm where he advised clients on a variety of public offerings and SEC reporting matters.

In recognition for his work, Seth has been named to Best Lawyers in America since 2022.

Seth earned a B.S. in industrial and labor relations from Cornell University and a J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center. While in law school, Seth was a legal student observer at the Office of the Inspector General. He also served as a legal intern for the competition (antitrust) team for Google Inc. (now Alphabet).
