

CODISCOVR Promotes Nicole Marie Gill to Chair and Managing Member

Monday, February 26, 2024

PHILADELPHIA, February 26, 2023 — CODISCOVR, an ancillary business of Cozen O'Connor that handles all aspects of eDiscovery and information governance, promoted Nicole Marie Gill to managing member and chair. Gill is the first woman to lead this group. She previously served as vice-chair of CODISCOVR and has extensive experience managing complex and high-profile eDiscovery projects.

Gill works with attorneys and clients to develop efficient and effective discovery management strategies tailored to the case at hand. Leveraging advanced technologies and analytics, she manages complex and high-profile eDiscovery projects and routinely navigates data and privacy protection laws across many jurisdictions, both domestic and foreign. Gill is a member of the Sedona Conference and is currently part of the WG6 Drafting Committee focused on exploring data privacy issues related to the Exportation of Data from the People's Republic of China. Gill is also a member of the Philadelphia Chapter of Women in eDiscovery, serves as vice chair of the Philadelphia Bar Association's Wellness and Quality of Life committee, and is on the Cozen O'Connor's Women's Initiative Executive Committee.

Related Practice Areas

- CODISCOVR (eDiscovery)