

Hugh Algeo Elected to PA Bar Association Family Law Council

Tuesday, July 26, 2022

PHILADELPHIA, July 26, 2022 — Hugh Algeo, counsel with the firm's Family Law Practice, was elected to a three-year term as a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association Family Law Section Council at the Family Law Section Summer Meeting. The seven Council members have general supervision and control of the Section's affairs. Algeo and the council will work with the Section to bring together PBA members interested in the development and practical working of the law relating to marriage, divorce, support, custody, visitation of children, adoption, and juvenile matters.

Algeo is an experienced family law and litigation attorney with advanced tax and asset analysis capabilities. He represents clients in all aspects of family, matrimonial law, and civil litigation in both the Court of Common Pleas and appellate courts.
