

ESG & Impact Investing: An Emerging Company Case Study

Location

Webinar

Date & Time

Start Date: 11/01/2022
 Start Time: 12:00 p.m. ET
 End Time: 1:00 p.m. ET

The market for impact investments continues to expand as more investors focus on how their decisions can make the world a better place. As a result, emerging companies that embody environmental, social, and governance (ESG) principles are now seeing more opportunities when they raise capital. Join John Shire and Sarah Hawley, founder and CEO of Growmotely, Inc., for an in-depth analysis of how Growmotely has experienced measurable social impact and rapid growth. Founded in 2020, Growmotely has been recognized as one of the best startups to invest in.

In this program, John and Sarah will discuss:

- How Growmotely promotes and embodies ESG principles
- Lessons learned from a rapidly growing emerging company
- How impact investing is affecting access to capital

To view this webinar, click here.

Share
 Post

ATTORNEYS

John D. Shire
 Co-Chair, Health Care & Life Sciences

jshire@cozen.com

(202) 747-0775

RELATED PRACTICES

Emerging Business & Venture Capital

Environmental, Social & Governance

