

National Town Hall: What the $2 Trillion Stimulus Means for Your Business

Friday, March 27, 2020

David Barron joined a town hall discussion about the recent stimulus package that was passed by the Senate. Inc., in partnership with the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, held a virtual National Small Business Town Hall on Friday, March 27. Editor-at-large Kimberly Weisul hosted the chat on Inc.com with Neil Bradley, the Chamber's executive vice president and chief policy officer. They discussed exactly what the bill could mean to small businesses: where it provides opportunities, where it creates headaches, and the strategies that will best enable founders to benefit.

To view the town hall, click here.

Related Practice Areas

- Labor & Employment