Start Date: 08/04/2022

Start Time: 1:00

End Time: 2:00 pm EDT

The U.S. Supreme Court overturned Roe v. Wade, re-igniting a highly charged issue in a way that has impacted the personal and work lives of individuals across the country. This webinar will offer a roundtable discussion of the current challenges and open questions from the Dobbs decision from employment law, benefits, and health care perspectives, including the following:

- A brief summary of the Supreme Court's decision and its implications
- Challenges with new employment policies, such as providing abortion-related travel expenses
- Potential civil and criminal liability for employers
- The continuing blurred line between personal and work life and the risk of taking adverse action against employees
- A post-Dobbs world and the potential downfall of other constitutional rights
