Natasha has experience managing all aspects of the administration of high net worth trusts, estates, and guardianships. She is a skilled negotiator and prides herself on her ability to deliver positive results by implementing tailored litigation strategies for each of her clients. With a master of laws in taxation, Natasha aids her clients by reviewing tax returns, corporate documents, and accounting/financial statements, conducting preliminary financial analysis, and collaborating with experts and financial accountants.

Prior to joining the firm, Natasha was a partner with a Fort Lauderdale, Florida-based firm where she focused her practice on probate administration, trust and estate litigation, and guardianship administration and litigation.

Natasha earned her bachelor's degree from the University of Florida, her law degree, magna cum laude, from Nova Southeastern University, and her master of laws in taxation from New York University School of Law. She is bilingual in spoken Urdu and proficient in written Arabic.
