

Novartis and Subsidiaries Settle FCPA Cases for $346M, Avoiding a Monitor Despite Recidivism

Wednesday, July 8, 2020

Niki Sprinzen was quoted in an Anti-Corruption Report discussing the settlement agreement Novartis, a Swiss pharmaceutical company, reached with the U.S. DOJ and the SEC to settle FCPA charges. Ultimately, “a company’s enforcement history and resolutions with other enforcement agencies play into the form and size of a resolution,” said Niki.
