Jerry and Milton discuss the latest news coming out of the DMV Attorneys' General Offices, the implications for local businesses, and insight on how the DMV may influence companies nationally. They discuss the impact of new AG Jason Miyares including his priorities and discuss an overview of emerging consumer protection issues in DC and Maryland to include major antitrust investigations. They also cover the changes that may be in store for businesses following Virginia's enactment of comprehensive privacy and data security laws and changes companies should be prepared for following the general elections in November.
