

Troutman Pepper Construction Team Jumps to Cozen O'Connor in LA

Thursday, March 21, 2024

Bruce Ficken and Marion Hack were quoted in a Law.com article discussing Marion and her team's transition to Cozen O'Connor. "[This move] is almost a match made in heaven," said Bruce. "We know each other, we know each other's practices, and then we have the additional factor of the overlap in clients, who are uniformly thrilled about the move."

Marion commented on her unexpected move, which was initiated by a client conflict she couldn't resolve. "I had to pivot rather quickly," said Marion. "I had to find a place where I could service this one particular client and my other clients as well. ... Cozen was the right fit for our practice and clients."
