

Employment Law Issues for Essential Businesses

Location

Webinar

Date & Time

Start Date: 04/07/2020

Start Time: 3:30 pm

End Time: 5:00 pm Eastern

While some businesses have been forced to close during the COVID-19 crisis, others have been deemed essential and are dealing with a host of unique employment law issues. Many employers find themselves having to increase staff to handle increased demand, while protecting health and safety, maintaining employee morale, and dealing with increasingly tight restrictions on the mobility of employees and goods. This webinar will provide practical and legal guidance on the staffing issues facing essential businesses still in operation, including but not limited to:

1. Practical and legal issues surrounding the screening of employees for symptoms and sending sick employees home.
2. Compliance with “stay at home” orders and restrictions on travel, including suggested letters to employees.
3. Responding to “sick outs,” requests for “hazard pay,” and employees afraid to come to work.
4. Dealing with unions during the COVID-19 crisis.
5. Managing absenteeism under the new Families First Act.
6. Hiring and firing during the COVID-19 crisis.
