

Preparing Your Workplace for the Election Season

Location

Webinar

Date & Time

Start Date: 09/08/2022

Start Time: 1:00 pm EDT

End Time: 2:00 pm EDT

Another election season is fast approaching, and with it, a host of legal minefields and concerns for employers. This webinar will identify the common legal issues faced by employers seeking to manage political speech in and out of the workplace, as well as identify appropriate policies to minimize legal risk.

Topics covered will include:

- Can I fire an employee for political speech in or out of the workplace? What types of comments are legally protected?
- How far is too far? Are there limits to protected speech?
- What should my social media policy say about political speech?
- What if our employees ask the company to take a position on a political issue?
- Update on recent litigation involving political speech in the workplace.
