

Punching In: Unemployment Funding Decision Confronts DOL Chief

Monday, May 17, 2021

Robert Magovern was quoted in an article published by Bloomberg Law article which discusses how the U.S. Labor Department must determine how it will distribute $2 billion in unemployment insurance administrative funding that Congress provided in the American Rescue Plan. Robert noted that Biden's move may pressure contractors to boost pay for all workers, not just those working on federal contracts."

To read the full article, click here.

Related Practice Areas

- Transportation & Trade