

Bob Hayes and Matthew Glazer Prevail On Behalf of Comcast-Spectacor

Wednesday, July 30, 2014

Bob Hayes and Matthew Glazer, members of Cozen O'Connor's Commercial Litigation Department, recently obtained a favorable ruling on behalf of Comcast-Spectacor in a breach of contract suit against the former owner of the Philadelphia 76ers, in which the plaintiffs alleged they were deprived of fees relating to finding a buyer during the sale of the team.

The U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, Chief Judge Petrese B. Tucker granted summary judgment in favor of Comcast-Spectacor. The ruling served as a reversal to a prior decision by Tucker in which she said ambiguities in the written language of the contract between the plaintiffs and defendant necessitated further examination of the case by a jury. Tucker said in her opinion that a reversal was necessary because the court failed to address certain portions of the contract.

To continue reading about the case in The Legal Intelligencer, click here.

Robert W. Hayes
Member

rhayes@cozen.com
Phone (215) 665-2094
Fax (215) 665-2013

Matthew A. Glazer
Member

mglazer@cozen.com
Phone (215) 665-5566
Fax (215) 665-2013