Menachem Kastner will present “Real Estate Litigation: A Toolkit for Transactional Lawyers” at the 24th Annual Commercial Real Estate Institute. This course will cover how transaction attorneys can better protect clients when litigation is likely. Menachem will discuss:

- How to defend or refute threats of potential force majeure claims by understanding how courts are currently deciding these issues
- What documents will be subject to disclosure in litigation
- How to properly store and maintain deal files in anticipation of litigation
- Identifying common triggers of real estate litigation
- Steering clients from activity that could increase loss or liability during foreclosure
