

Arielle Eisenberg to Serve as Co-Chair of ABA Section of Labor and Employment Law Subcommittee

Tuesday, December 13, 2022

MIAMI, December 13, 2022 — Arielle Eisenberg, an associate in the firm's Labor & Employment Department, has been named co-chair of the ABA Section of Labor and Employment Law Federal Labor Standards Legislation Committee Communications Subcommittee. Arielle will assist in marketing and membership development initiatives for the committee.

Arielle focuses her practice on labor and employment, specifically Title VII, ADA, ADEA, and retaliation. She also counsels clients on decisions regarding hiring, accommodations, discipline, and pay issues under the FLSA and conducts human resource trainings.

About the ABA Section of Labor and Employment Law Federal Labor Standards Legislation Committee

Founded in 1946, the ABA Section of Labor & Employment consists of more than 25,000 members in all aspects of labor and employment law. The section represents all perspectives of labor and employment law and is committed to a balanced discussion of employment issues throughout the world and is also the leading provider of continuing legal education in the labor and employment law arena. The Labor and Employment Law Federal Labor Standards Legislation Committee has jurisdiction over certain statutes administered, or formerly administered, by the United States Department of Labor in the various areas of employment discrimination and fair labor standards.

About Cozen O'Connor

Established in 1970, Cozen O'Connor has more than 925 attorneys who help clients manage risk and make better business decisions. The firm counsels clients on their most sophisticated legal matters in all areas of the law, including litigation, corporate, and regulatory law. Representing a broad array of leading global corporations and middle market companies, Cozen O'Connor services its clients' needs through 33 offices across two continents.

Related Practice Areas

- Labor & Employment