Alexa focuses her practice on commercial litigation. She has broad experience, including handling contract disputes and real estate matters, premises liability, trucking and automobile cases, construction accidents, and negligent security cases. Alexa's experience includes representing her clients at trial, frequently taking and defending depositions, and handling discovery motions, dispositive motions, and pre-trial motions.

Alexa received her J.D., cum laude, from Villanova University School of Law and her Bachelor of Arts in government from Georgetown University. While at Villanova, Alexa was an associate editor for the Moorad Sports Law Journal.

Experience

Successfully defended Marriott International, Inc. in connection with a third-party judgment enforcement information subpoena and purported restraining notices filed by Trump-affiliated entities in connection with an action involving the operation of a Panama-based, Marriott-branded hotel. The plaintiffs' goal appeared to be to pressure Marriott to satisfy a judgment obtained against the hotel owner in a Panamanian arbitration. We successfully moved to quash the restraining notices and for a protective order against further discovery directed to Marriott.
