

Cyber Security Insurance Coverage Issues Presentation

Monday, April 24, 2017

Joseph Gerber and Matthew Siegel, of Cozen O'Connor's Global Insurance department, were invited to present to two insurance contract classes at The Fox School of Business at Temple University on Cyber Security. Joe and Matt will give their perspective on cyber insurance and coverage issues. Their presentation will also cover first- and third-party aspects of cyber insurance policies and typical claims that can include hacking, disruption of service, and theft of data.
