

Kenneth Fisher Named to City & State New York's Real Estate Power 100

Monday, March 30, 2020

New York, March 30, 2020 — Ken Fisher, a member of Cozen O'Connor's Business Law Department, was named to City & State New York's Real Estate Power 100. The list identifies the key executives, elected officials, appointees, advocates, and others involved in real estate development and public policy who help shape New York's real estate industry. Fisher was recognized for his work as an attorney, government relations professional, and voice in the media on issues concerning the industry.

Fisher concentrates his practice on the public realm of the New York metropolitan area with a focus on real estate development, regulatory law, litigation, and investigations. He is a former New York City Council Member and served as founding chair of the New York City Chapter of the New York League of Conservation Voters and was founding chair of the Governors Island Alliance. He also serves on the board of the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce and is chair of the Brooklyn Bar Association Committee on Government & the Public Sector.

About Cozen O'Connor

Established in 1970, Cozen O'Connor has more than 925 attorneys who help clients manage risk and make better business decisions. The firm counsels clients on their most sophisticated legal matters in all areas of the law, including litigation, corporate, and regulatory law. Representing a broad array of leading global corporations and middle market companies, Cozen O'Connor services its clients' needs through 33 offices across two continents.

Related Practice Areas

- Business
- Real Estate