

The Possible Paths Ahead if Adams Quits or Gets Booted, Jumaane Would Take Over

Friday, September 27, 2024

Jerry Goldfeder was quoted in a New York Daily News article discussing an inability committee, formed by city officials, that could vote Mayor Adams out of office if the governor decides not to remove him. "Inability is a term of art, and it relates to either being physically or emotionally in such a state that you can't carry out the duties of the office," Goldfeder said. "It's not about whether a mayor is indicted, and I would be hard-pressed to conclude that just because someone is indicted they are quote-unquote 'unable to function.'"
