Join John Shire and Chris Raphaely of Cozen O'Connor's Health Care Practice for a webinar on the key aspects of health care regulatory changes effective as of January 1, 2022. The webinar will cover the fundamental changes under the STARK Law "group practice" definition and related physician compensation issues, as well as how to structure productivitybased compensation arrangements. They will also discuss what providers need to know about the federal No Surprises Act. This webinar will sort through the new requirements and who is affected, and provide tips on how providers can comply without significant operational disruption or regulatory risk.
