

Katheryn Gettman Named One of Finance & Commerce's 2024 Top Women in Finance

Tuesday, October 8, 2024

MINNEAPOLIS, October 8, 2024 – Katheryn Gettman, a member of Cozen O'Connor's Corporate Practice, has been named one of Finance & Commerce's 2024 Top Women in Finance. The annual list recognizes impactful women in Minnesota's financial industry for their business accomplishments and leadership as role models for future generations.

Katie will be profiled in the Top Women in Finance magazine, and her efforts will be recognized at a November 14 event at Quincy Hall in Minneapolis.

Katie is a proven leader and innovator in the field of corporate and financial law who has propelled the fiscal growth and success of her diverse client base. She provides legal and business guidance to corporations, executives, and business owners primarily by acting as their outside general counsel. Many of her clients are businesses looking to grow, and she advises these companies on acquisition and financing strategies. She counsels clients on general business matters, including vendor and customer contract negotiations, operations and project financing, management concerns and competitor disputes, software license agreements, master services agreements, statements of work and other intellectual property, and web-based services agreements.
