

Cozen O'Connor and Three Attorneys Recognized in the Chambers 2021 High Net Worth Guide

Monday, August 30, 2021

PHILADELPHIA, August 30, 2021 — Cozen O'Connor is pleased to announce that the firm has been ranked Band 1 in the Chambers 2021 High Net Worth Guide under the category "Private Wealth Law" in Pennsylvania. Additionally, Lester Lipschutz and Robert Friedman, both members of the firm's Private Client, Trusts and Estates Practice Group, have been individually ranked for "Private Wealth Law." The Chambers High Net Worth Guide ranking tables identify the leading professional advisers to the Private Wealth market.

Lipschutz was described by a fellow attorney as "a fine lawyer" with "an extremely sophisticated practice."

A source said Friedman "is at the highest level in technical proficiency. His clients are very loyal, they like him a lot."

About Cozen O'Connor's Private Client, Trust and Estates Group

Our Private Client, Trusts and Estates Group is dedicated to the personal and sophisticated legal needs of high net worth individuals and families. Effective tax planning is just one step in addressing the management and transmission of family wealth. But successful planning also requires intelligent design based on sound experience and a focus on execution. Our attorneys have unparalleled experience in this area and play the critical role of listener, often confidante, and always advisor, in addressing the unique family issues that relate to a successful estate plan. They are legal counsel, but also personal counsel, with the experience to access the cross-disciplinary resources of a full-service law firm or to recognize, where needed, specialized outside resources for high net worth families.

Related Practice Areas

- Private Client, Trusts and Estates