

Employers See Strings Attached In $500B CARES Act Relief

Friday, April 3, 2020

Niki Sprinzen was quoted in a Law360 article discussing the oversight by a newly created special inspector general of the $500 billion CARES Act that could result in an increase in enforcement and litigation similar to that seen in the aftermath of the 2008 financial crisis.

To read more of this article, click here.

Related Practice Areas

- White Collar Defense & Investigations