

Deference in Flux: Navigating the New Legal Landscape Post-Loper

Location

Multiple in-person locations in the U.S., including Austin, Boston, Chicago, New York, Oakland, Seattle, and Washington, D.C. Virtual attendance will also be offered.

Date & Time

Start Date: 11/14/2024

Start Time: 1:00 p.m. ET

End Time: 3:00 p.m. ET

Nicole Sprinzen, vice chair of the White Collar Defense & Investigations group, will be on a panel titled "Deference in Flux: Navigating the New Legal Landscape Post-Loper" hosted by the National Association of Women Lawyers. Nicole and her fellow panelists – including Varu Chilakamarri, partner at K&L Gates, and Judge Victoria Wood (Ret.), ADR Services, Inc., will discuss what's next for the legal and regulatory landscape in the wake of a landmark U.S. Supreme Court's decision overturning the longstanding Chevron doctrine that required federal courts to defer to administrative agencies' interpretations of ambiguous or broad statutes.

To learn more and register, click here.

Sponsor

National Association of Women Lawyers

Share Post

ATTORNEYS

Nicole H. Sprinzen

Vice Chair, White Collar
Defense & Investigations

nsprinzen@cozen.com

(202) 471-3451

RELATED PRACTICES

White Collar Defense & Investigations

