

OSHA Sets Jan. 10 ETS Deadline After Split 6th Circuit Panel Lifts Stay

Monday, December 20, 2021

Jim Sullivan spoke with Inside OSHA about how OSHA plans to start enforcing its COVID-19 vaccination emergency temporary standard (ETS) on January 10, with employer vaccine policies to take effect February 9 -- provided employers make "good faith efforts" to comply -- after a three-judge panel of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 6th Circuit voted 2-1 to dissolve an earlier order staying the rule. He said that the courts review of the federal rule could differ substantially from its review of state rules. "If I were a betting man, I would think that there is a much greater chance of them reinstating this stay on an emergency basis because of the scope of this order verse the scope of other state or local orders,"

To read more of this article, click here. (Subscription required)

Related Practice Areas

- Labor & Employment