

Alycen Moss Receives Prestigious Andrew C. Hecker Award from the Federation of Defense and Corporate Counsel

Friday, August 5, 2022

Alycen Moss received the prestigious Andrew C. Hecker Award, presented annually by the Federation of Defense and Corporate Counsel (FDCC) to the member who authors the year's most outstanding article in a federation publication.

Alycen received this award for the article she co-wrote with Elliot Kerzner, "Coverage Issues Regarding Riots, Civil Commotion, and Curfews." Established by the FDCC Board in 1995, the award honors the memory of Andrew C. Hecker, who held many positions of responsibility in the FDCC, including serving on the board of directors and chairing the Publications Committee.

Alycen is co-chair of the firm's Property Insurance Group and office managing partner of the Atlanta office. She is chair of the FDCC Property Insurance section, vice chair of the Insurance Industry Institute Committee, Professional Women's Forum, Bylaws & Resolutions Committee, FedLife Committee, Membership Development and Retention Committee, and sits on the Admissions Committee. In 2021, Alycen received FDCC's John Appleman Award, which honors the section chair who made the most outstanding contribution to the advancement of the FDCC's educational goals through the work of their section. Membership in the FDCC is limited, selective, and by nomination only, and admission requires a rigorous peer review.

About Cozen O'Connor

Established in 1970, Cozen O'Connor has over 925 attorneys who help clients manage risk and make better business decisions. The firm counsels clients on their most sophisticated legal matters in all areas of the law, including litigation, corporate, and regulatory law. Representing a broad array of leading global corporations and middle-market companies, Cozen O'Connor serves its clients' needs through 33 offices across two continents.

Related Practice Areas

- Insurance Coverage
- Property Insurance

Industry Sectors

- Insurance