

Steven Dickinson Selected as a Recipient of Finance & Commerce's Minnesota ICON Awards

Thursday, December 19, 2024

MINNEAPOLIS, December 19, 2024 – Steven Dickinson, co-chair of Cozen O'Connor's International Practice, has been selected as one of the recipients of Finance & Commerce's Minnesota ICON awards. The annual awards honor individuals who have made significant, lasting contributions to Minnesota's business and legal communities. Honorees have displayed a commitment to mentoring the next generation of leaders and were selected by a panel of judges with industry expertise. Dickinson received his award at a celebration and networking event at Quincy Hall in Minneapolis on December 12.

Dickinson's practice focuses on domestic and international business transactions for U.S. and international companies. His transactions in the United States range from private equity investments to multi-party procurement contracts to acquisitions and sales valued at more than $1 billion. Dickinson assists international companies in establishing and operating in the United States, primarily in the Midwest. He is an appointed member of the Minnesota District Export Council, an organization comprising experienced international business leaders appointed by the U.S. Secretary of Commerce.
