The U.S. Department of Labor continues to be one of the more active federal agencies, providing significant regulation of the employer-employee relationship on hot issues ranging from wage and hour disputes (minimum wage and overtime/exemptions) to remote work during the COVID-19 pandemic. This webinar will present an “insider’s” look through a dynamic interview with the former Acting Secretary of the Department of Labor Patrick Pizzella, who will provide his thoughts on DOL processes and initiatives, what to expect in the coming months, and public perception of the agency.
