Kathy Jaffari will present on ESG topics including DEI on a panel titled "Where Does NY Stand in the Competition Among States and Regions for Business?" at the New York State Bar Association 2022 Annual Business Law Section Meeting. The panel will aim to compare business entity statistics of U.S. states while addressing the following:

- Do the statistics reflect differences in business entity laws, benefits for particular industries, or other jurisdictional differences?
- Do board diversity requirements give states a competitive edge?
