

City Planning Chair Outlines 'City of Yes' Zoning Rule Changes

Wednesday, September 14, 2022

Ken Fisher and City Planning Chair Dan Garodnick discuss Mayor Eric Adams' vision for each citywide zoning amendment as a part of his "City of Yes" zoning initiative in Crain's New York Business.

Ken and Dan explain how they expect the mayor's team to introduce two citywide zoning amendments that pertain to environmental and business improvement regulations and a third zoning regulation involving housing and converting existing units and commercial buildings into affordable housing. They also share their thoughts on the uncertainty ahead because amendments will need the support of the City Council to become law.

To read the full article, click here. (Subscription required)

Related Practice Areas

- Real Estate