

Collaborative Spirit Integral to Upcoming Chicago Marathon

Wednesday, October 9, 2019

Chris Hennessy, in a feature story by the Chicago Suburban Journal & Topics News, draws parallels between his work efforts as a member of the Commercial Litigation practice mentoring younger attorneys and the collaborative efforts required to excel within the running community. As president of the Chicago Area Runners Association (CARA), Chris shares his experiences helping the organization train those interested in entering long-distance contests as well as supporting them as a race-day volunteer. Since 2012, Chris has competed in a number of prestigious marathons, including events in Chicago, Los Angeles, and Paris.

To read more of this feature article, click here.

Related Practice Areas

- Commercial Litigation